

VOICE OF INDUSTRY.

THE RIGHTS OF MAN TO LABOR. For each, it is a claim of natural property...

LOWELL, JANUARY 15, 1847.

INDUSTRIAL REFORM PLEASED.

WE have received notice of a resolution of the Legislature...

A SPECTATOR.

The article in another column, with the above signature, we cannot let pass without a few words in review...

After doubting the efficacy of the leading measure advocated by you, for benefiting the laboring classes...

If this is our correspondent's position, we are not prepared to go with him...

The great error in our law system, we apprehend to be this:—The fundamental principles upon which our judicial systems are founded... head to remain uncontrolled. He asks that young men and women should be industrious...

The second exposition of our correspondent is, 'Formal education, and no other can prize it more highly than we do, and though we have devoted no article...

We sincerely desire that man and woman should study their health and comfort in dress...

CORPORATIONISM FREQUENTLY MILD.

We can do nothing from a communication in the 'Northampton Democrat' of Dec. 25...

Loecism. You who have left the pleasant homes of your parents and congregated in our manufacturing villages...

We hardly know which to attribute to the illustrious author of the above; the cognomen of knave or fool; but it is quite evident, that if his claims are not slighted...

But enough of this irony and to the point. We are not speaking in defence of loecism...

The Voice of Industry is out on Col. Schouler because the printer voted to leave their Franklin supper at the American House...

The National Era.—This new advent in the history of the Press of this country, as well as the Anti-Slavery cause...

LABOR REFORM CONVENTION.

We have received notice through our friends at Boston that the Convention will be held at CHAPMAN HALL, Chapman Place...

It is earnestly desired that our friends in the several towns will be present at the opening of the meetings at 10 o'clock, A. M.

IMPORTANT ADMISSION.

A friend has presented us with the Annual Report of the School Committee of this city in which we find the following important clause...

Now we wish to ask that committee consisting of Abner H. Brown, Stoddard, W. H. Hanks, A. A. Miner, Frederick Parker, John O. Green and John Wright...

THE NORTHAMPTON DEMOCRAT in speaking of its meagre support says:—'We do not pretend to any very extraordinary talent out of our town...

The Voice of Industry is out on Col. Schouler because the printer voted to leave their Franklin supper at the American House...

If our Voice should appear to-morrow (this week) charge it to a cold, for we've got one, we have, and who hasn't?

The editor of the rowdy organ of this city has become so boiling over with stay-at-home patriotism...

Paying for Pass.—We understand that Post Master Seavy, has given fifty dollars towards defraying the expenses of the War.

Query.—Which is most consistent with christian character, giving fifty dollars to buy bullets, bayonets, grape-shot and other weapons of death...

The Lowell Voice of Industry has been suspended a week or two on account of pecuniary embarrassments, but has come to hand this week with a larger amount of reading matter than formerly...

The printers of Newburyport and vicinity are to celebrate the Anniversary of the birth of Franklin, on Saturday evening next.

CONGRESS is in a squall. No union, Treasury dry, Volunteers scarce, and the War assuming rather serious aspects.

A BONE FOR TENDERNESS MEN TO GRAB.—A lady soliciting subscriptions for a temperance periodical has a somewhat severe view on many minds from this city...

We are obliged to inform our friend Case, of Danville, Pa., that as yet we have been unable to procure for him or ourselves, No. 2 of this Volume.

LECTURES ON ASSOCIATIONS. A series of Lectures is being delivered in Boston upon this highly interesting subject.

It is highly amusing to see how wonderfully in love with corporations a few dough faced editors are, since our honorary rule upon the Northern Rail Road.

PARTICULAR NOTICE.—The members of the Industrial Reform Association, are requested to meet at their room next Monday evening at 1-1/2 past 7 o'clock...

The editor of the rowdy organ of this city has become so boiling over with stay-at-home patriotism, since his office was turned into a recruiting yard...

An exchange paper proposes the following mathematical question:—'If a man is too poor to pay for a newspaper, how many dogs can he afford to keep?'

The President has sent to Congress another message, urging prompt action in prosecution of the war.
